To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Marianne Penta and I am Michael Falanga's godmother. Michael was a good student, loves sports, always had many friends, has a great personality and is devoted to his family. He works for Con Edison and is loved and appreciated for his management skills, commitment, knowledge and drive. He has been promoted several times in a short span of time. Much like Michael, his wife Melissa is kind, loving, patient, warm, generous and unselfish. She is a responsible, hard worker, a great wife, sister, daughter and daughter in law. Oh and did I mention she is some cook!!! ☺

Michael lost his wonderful dad at the age of 17 and has since stepped up to the plate in caring for his mom and his sister. I have witnessed his loving, caring, unselfish support during some very hard times. Melissa was right there beside him.

Michael and Melissa are mature responsible adults who yearn for a child to complete their blessed life. They have tried so hard to have one. Sadly, there have been several failed attempts. Through their tears and disappointment they did their best to be positive and hopeful. A true testament to their character. Because it has not happened for them they have decided they would love to adopt.

I cannot imagine a better home for a child than with these two loving people. They have so much love to give. They are financially secure and I recommend them wholeheartedly.

Please feel free to contact me at the number or email below.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,
